Based on the award-winning animated film!*

After 17 ordinary years on Earth, Makoto Konno's journey was about to be ended by a freak accident. Then, life gave her a reset button. With her newfound time-leaping powers, she immediately sets out to wipe off all the little annoyances in her daily life, from failing grades to iffy relationships that she can't handle. But as her time-leaps get more frequent, she is forced to realise that every change she makes has profound repercussions that she can't foresee... and should her powers fail her, the consequences could be disastrous...
